SIGNALGRYD >> CUSTOMER PAGING SYSTEM

At its core, SIGNALGRYD wireless customer paging system allows your staff to wirelessly alert customers when necessary. Although most applicable in the F&B industry (for self-service order collection), the system is also able to support other industries such as hospitality & tourism, healthcare, automotive, and many others.

Keep your customers comfortable knowing that they are being attended to. Your customers would be able to roam around the vicinity or simply be seated. Our Customer Paging System helps to enhance staff performance, customer satisfaction and reduce congestion at your store fronts.

The simplistic design and function enables our system to operate strictly through radio frequency. No internet connection, or Wifi connectivity is required.
